

Spotlight On Sun: The Price and Technology Leader

Join the Migration to Unified Storage

Sun Microsystems™ has transformed the storage industry with the Unified Storage Systems. IT Managers everywhere are flocking to these new storage systems which have re-defined performance and the economics of data storage.

Now you can join the migration at lower prices through December 26th.

Ready. Set. Go.

These systems include all the software licenses you'll need* (no extra charges apply). So you get fully loaded, fully featured systems — with even more features and functionality down the road — without ever paying more. Start your migration today.

Chart your course.

The early migration pricing listed below are manufacturer's suggested list prices (USD). Contact your Sun authorized reseller partner to configure a system to meet your storage needs today.

* NICS, HBAs and rail kits may be required.

 Prices are manufacturer's list and suggested promo prices, actual prices are determined by Sun authorized reseller partners. All orders must be submitted to your Sun authorized reseller no later than December 26, 2009.

 Service Contract required for uplift and future software releases.
